Re: Jack Schultz

Dear Trisha:

Jack Schultz spoke at our 33rd Annual Convention and Trade Show in Indianapolis in September, 2005. Our Association has focused lots of energy in encouraging our bankers to be even better local community leaders and visionaries.

Jack was outstanding! He was able to encapsulate in real life experience in one hour, what I have been encouraging for several years.

Any organization that is serious about conveying a message of convincing a community that it can take responsibility and move forward, needs to hear Jack. He will provide supporting statistics, but more importantly, introduce you to communities that have accomplished community and economic development.

I can't wait for another opportunity to hear Jack!

Sincerely,
